KN068 outside Stonehaven, Kincardine & Mearns

A completely unsuitable site for the following reasons

- far removed from the community facilities of Stonehaven. The nearest shop is the petrol station close to the train station which would be over a mile away (not 400-1000m as suggested by the bid document unless you are a crow).
- visually highly intrusive as it is located on a ridge. It would be visible from all directions (A90 north coming down from Glasslaw junction; A90 south all the way from Cowie hill; Auchenblae Road; Slug Road; Toucks Road). The one place where it wouldn't be visible from ironically would be Stonehaven.
- drainage would be in to the Cheyne Burn, a tributary of the Carron Burn. Any development impacting on rain run-off into this area could lead to highly expensive modifications to the flood defences that are currently being put in place in Stonehaven. I therefore disagree with the bid saying No to the question Could development on the site result in additional flood risk elsewhere? From an inspection of topography it is clear that this whole area acts as a soak for all water coming down from Cheyne Hill, and the field opposite is often flooded with standing water.
- there are archaeological findings in the field opposite. Likely to be present on this ridge as well.
