Your comments

- 1) Site designed for new secondary school in Banchory should be retained for future use - no housebuilding should be allowed on it.
- 2) Area in Banchory to north & west of Hillcroft Road, including Glen O'Jee Land, should be kept as recreational amenity land for social wellbeing, especially in view of extended plans for housebuilding in other areas. It is the only sizeable area of amenity land left in the town - (Ref: M062, M056, M040, M041, M077)
- 3) Planning should be in hand for The High Street. On line shopping is reducing uptake of outlets in The High Street, so the Planning Dept needs to work with landlords to convert to other uses, ie residential, or non-retail -
