

Daviot

No sites are allocated for new development

- Due to the attractive setting of the settlement and its proximity to large service centres, there is significant development pressure in the settlement which needs to be carefully managed.
- Development requires to be modest and restricted over the next 10 years.

