I object to the proposals for further development around the village of Muchalls on the following grounds.

1. - This village is part of a Conservation Area and should be protected from further indiscriminate development which would ruin its charm and beauty. There are few communities like it and this one should be respected and preserved.
2. - Further development in Muchalls would place considerable pressure on traffic currently using the A90 Stonehaven to Aberdeen road at busy times. Crossing this road to make a right hand turn towards Aberdeen is dangerous enough as it is at the moment. Further development would only increase that danger and cause serious injuries or loss of lives.
3. - The schools at Newtonhill and Portlethen are currently close to capacity. Further development currently taking place in Portlethen and Chapelton of Elsick would lead to these facilities being full very soon. Before further development in this area is considered, new schools must be built or current ones expanded.
4. - The excellent Health Centre at Portlethen would also be stretched and experience further pressure on its resources if further developments were allowed to take place. This is a first class service which is currently trying to absorb patients who have found themselves without medical cover since Stonehaven Practice have adopted a policy of constricting its patient list.
5. - There is an abundance of wildlife using the fields earmarked for the proposed development. Roe Deer, foxes, badgers, red squirrels, weasels, stoats and a number of raptors and song birds are regularly seen in this area. There is also a huge population of nesting seabirds like puffins, fulmars, gannets etc seen on the cliffs around the village in Spring/Early Summer.

I recommend that there is no further development around the village of Muchalls.
