Your comments

I'd like to comment on the development of 3 new houses proposed for the FR014 site in Methlick.

Is this development going to cause more of a floodrisk to us and our neighbours due to water runoff? Blackcraig residents had recent severe flooding in 2015 and a flood risk assessment should be completed to prove these houses won't make flooding more likely.

We know there is ample new housing in the village that has not been sold or occupied so there is no specific need for any more new housing in Methlick. There should also be a mix of housing and low cost housing should be provided. The amount of earthwork needed would mean none of these houses could be low cost.

We know the school is close to capacity. Is the school capable of admitting more children from this development?

The 3 houses on top of the hill will be in a much higher aspect than the rest of the houses on this street which follow the line of the road.

The new houses would overlook the existing houses, depriving them of their privacy.

The wood beside this site was home to red squirrels which used to frequent the woodland and our garden until a large percentage of it was removed. We are hoping they will return and this development will not encourage them.

The Doctor's surgery has recently closed which highlights local services are diminishing while trying to introduce new homes and families to the area.
