Your comments

I have studied the proposed 'Local Development Plan', outlining the proposed building of new houses and roads in and around Banchory (Marr).

I wish to object to those plans being approved for the following reasons:

- The town of Banchory has grown substantially over recent years (Hill of Banchory) and I would contest that the construction of further housing is not required, at this time.
- The town's infrastructure is struggling to cope with the current population, putting pressure on the local secondary school, roads, doctors-surgery, dentists, car-parking, etc.
- Banchory's pleasant countryside, wildlife (deer, pheasants, wood-peckers, red squirrels + wild birds) will all be disturbed and will vacate the surrounding area.
- Many of Banchory's residents own dogs and enjoy the easy access to the many paths and woodlands that surround the town – these will be lost if these additional house construction plans are approved.
